

MyQHealth Member Portal – COVID-19 Update

The screenshot displays the MyQHealth member portal interface. At the top, a yellow banner contains the text "Coronavirus (COVID-19): Stay informed and stay healthy. Learn More". Below this is a navigation bar with "Home", "My Plan", and "My Health" links. A red arrow points to the "Learn More" link in the banner. The main content area features a large image of hands being washed in a sink, with the text "CORONAVIRUS DISEASE INFORMATION" overlaid. Below the image, there is a section titled "What you need to know about Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19)" followed by a paragraph of text. At the bottom, there are two teal buttons: "How to Protect Yourself" and "If You Think You Are Sick". The left sidebar contains the MyQHealth logo, user name "Charlie Brown", and various utility links like "Settings", "Logout", "Your Care Coordinators", "Schedule a Call", "Live Chat", "MESSAGES", "HOURS OF OPERATION", and "ACME WARRIOR" logo.

Our member web page has been updated to include broadened COVID-19 content into our member site experience. The CDC is offering content syndication that we have incorporated into a dedicated member site page via the alert link at the top. The content updates in real-time, so it provides our members with the latest information within the confines of the MyQHealth platform.

What you need to know about Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19)

The outbreak of coronavirus disease (COVID-19) is an ongoing public health issue. Quantum Health is closely monitoring the situation, and our Care Coordinators follow guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and other public health resources, to ensure you have the most up-to-date information and guidelines. Here are some frequently asked questions. For additional information, talk with your Care Coordinator or visit Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. We will continue to keep you informed.
